

Aligning National Approaches to Digital Preservation Conference 2011

- Location: The National Library of Estonia, Tallinn, Estonia
- Date: May 23-25, 2011
- National preservation programs may share information with each other in order to begin building strategic international collaborations to support the preservation of our collective cultural memory. Conference goals:
  1. To share information between national digital preservation efforts around the world;
  2. To align promising technical and organizational approaches, emphasizing interoperability;
  3. To foster economically sustainable collaborations among institutions and countries;
  4. To devise an action plan for building collaboration among interested national initiatives, with a view to forming an International Steering Committee for digital preservation.
- Co-sponsored by the U.S. Library of Congress, the National Library of Estonia, and the Educopia Institute
